WORKSHOP
EST. 2011

Art class

at Briarcliff Nursery School

Pre-school artists are at the age where they naturally push boundaries that, in the art studio at least, are the exact ones we want them to push. They are seeking positive, unbridled, voracious experiences with materials. Pre-schoolers don't care where paint "should" go; they're busy trying to make it go all the places we've grown out of imagining it can. In our Pre-School art classes, we emphasize:

- +EXPLORATION TO PROMOTE UNDERSTANDING
- +AN EMERGING FOCUS ON THE PRODUCT
- +SOCIAL SKILLS
- +COMPLEX & MIXED MEDIA WORK

Every project is multi-layered and completed over a series of multiple classes ending with an art show at the conclusion of each project where we talk about our process. We'll explore collage, painting, drawing, sculpture and printmaking.

Mondays 12:15-1:15PM October 7th-December 16th 8 weeks for $216
